FINE MACKEREL FARE.

Sch. Victor Has Splendid Trip of Late Caught Fish.

Sch. Victor, Capt. John W. McFarland, arrived from Sydney, C. B., this morning with a fine trip, about 380 barrels of salt mackerel, fine handsome fish, exceptionally white in color and nicely taken care of.

Capt. McFarland reports leaving for home last Friday, and saw no fish coming up the Cape Shore. He thinks if the fleet had been off Sydney earlier, some good catches would have resulted: as the fish have been there all the season. He left a fleet of six American vessels there with catches ranging from 50 to 140 barrels, although one or two have no fish.

This fare will net a handsome stock and share and better Capt. McFarland's already high position in the seining fleet.

Friday, Nov. 1st
